

BIOGRAPHY

SARAH BOILY

Sarah Boily is Director General of the Official Languages Branch and Co-Champion of Official Languages at Canadian Heritage since October 2021.

Sarah has over 13 years of experience in the field of official languages at Canadian Heritage and the Office of the Commissioner of Official Languages.

Since the beginning of her mandate, she has led the Pan-Canadian Consultations on Official Languages 2022, which aimed to renew the Action Plan for Official Languages 2018-2023, while supporting the parliamentary process of Bill C-13 to modernize the Official Languages Act.

In her previous role as Senior Director of Policy and Research, she led the modernization of the Official Languages Act and worked with community, government and academic partners.

As Director of Interdepartmental Relations and Accountability, she led the first-ever progress report to the Clerk on the implementation of the recommendations of the Report on Language of Work in the Federal Public Service in partnership with TBS, PCO and Justice Canada.

Prior to joining PCH, Sarah held several positions with Employment and Social Development Canada, Health Canada and the Office of the Commissioner of Official Languages, where she developed a second language learning strategy.

She holds a Master's degree in Public Administration from the École nationale d'administration publique and two Bachelor's degrees in Education and Science from the University of Ottawa.
