

*Maritime Occupational Health and Safety Regulations made under the Part II of the *Canada Labour Code

Transport Canada- Marine Safety and Security
NAOHS week of May 2022

Transport
Canada

Transports
Canada

Canada

Overview - Maritime Occupational Health and Safety (MOHS) Regulations

- Who is covered by the MOHS regulations ?
- Which meetings are taking place with the marine industry?
- How to participate in the MOHS working group?
- What OHS documents were recently published for consultation?
- How to provide feedback on the OHS documents?
- Next steps

Who is covered by the MOHS regulations ?

Part II of the Canada Labour Code and MOHS regulations apply to federally regulated workplaces:

Generally speaking, it applies to onboard employees:

- ✓ working on Canadian registered vessels that travel interprovincially or internationally;
- ✓ including Canadian Coast Guard vessels, and;
- ✓ stevedore employees working in loading and unloading vessels.

Which meetings are taking place with the marine industry?

- Labour Program and Transport Canada co-chair the MOHS working group at the Canadian Marine Advisory Council (CMAC)
- The opportunity is open to government, the marine industry, unions and the general public to attend and share your views on OHS marine safety and security.
- Under the Standing Committee on Personnel:
  - ✓ MOHS working group meets nationally twice a year (spring and fall sessions)

How to participate to Marine OHS working group?

There are ways to participate in this engagement opportunity:

1. Attend a CMAC meeting. Register using the When and where section below.
2. Send your proposed agenda items to the CMAC Secretariat by email or mail.
3. To receive information and be added to the distribution list, please email cmac-ccmc@tc.gc.ca

What Marine OHS documents were recently published for consultation?

- OHS documents are published on CMAC Google drive (fall 2021) :
- Item 3b-Term of reference CMAC MOHS national tripartite group (Nov 2019 and updated 2020)
- Item 3c-CMAC MOHS work plan and priorities (Nov 2019) with additions in red (Nov 2020)
- Item 3d-Draft directive on cargo hold as confined spaces (Nov 2021)
- Item 3e-Answers provided to questions received from the industry (Nov 2021) transmitted verbally at the rebroadcasted session in June 2021
- Item 3f-Draft Ship Safety Bulletin- Safety net under means of access to a vessel (Nov 2021)

How to provide feedback?

- TC is looking for joint written comments on the OHS documents by using form:
  - ✓ Item 3a-CMAC MOHS comment form

What is next ?

- More information will be provided and discussion will continue at the next MOHS CMAC virtual meeting scheduled on May 3, 2022

Questions & Contact

Nicole Dubé

Acting Manager

Marine Occupational Health and Safety Program

Nicole.dube@tc.gc.ca

Transport Canada, Marine
Safety and Security

