“As Designated Official for Official Languages, my role is to raise the visibility of the Official Languages Program among TBS employees, take action on major issues that affect the Program, and support the initiatives of the Departmental Advisory Committee on Official Languages. The Committee, which comprises representatives from all sectors of the Secretariat, is mandated to support the Executive Committee in implementing the Secretariat's Official Languages Program, by reviewing and approving departmental policies and action plans and by following up on the activities outlined in the departmental action plan.”

- Marie-Chantal Girard, Designated Official, Official Languages
