

Be a language buddy!

The Language Buddy System—a popular skill development program based on mentor and learner teams—is available to employees of Statistics Canada whose oral proficiency level is B or higher. It is an excellent way to maintain or improve second language proficiency while practising physical distancing. Various virtual platforms are available to mentors and learners, such as Microsoft Teams, Zoom and teleconferencing services, to name a few.