

Lucie Séguin, Assistant Deputy Minister, Receiver General and Pension

Lucie Séguin was appointed Assistant Deputy Minister of the Receiver General and Pension Branch on September 19, 2022.

In her role, Lucie is responsible for leading the operations of the federal treasury (including the issuance and reconciliation of all government payments), preparing the Government of Canada's monthly and annual financial reports (Public Accounts of Canada), maintaining the government's general ledger and ensuring the integrity of public monies held in trust.

Lucie also ensures the delivery of government-wide services, including the Government of Canada's pension administration for 8 pension plans, the Canadian General Standards Board, GCSurplus and Seized Property Management Services, and e-clippings. As King's Printer for Canada, she is responsible for the publishing of the Canada Gazette and the Statutes of Canada. In addition, Lucie provides advisory services to departments and agencies on government advertising and public opinion research.

Previously, Lucie was Chief Executive Officer of Public Services and Procurement Canada's Translation Bureau, where she positioned the Bureau as a centre of excellence in linguistic services for the Government of Canada and a leader in adopting artificial intelligence while ensuring language quality. Lucie oversaw all the translation, interpretation and terminology services, in both official languages and in more than 100 Indigenous and foreign languages, to federal government departments and agencies, as well as to the Canadian Parliament.

Prior to joining the Translation Bureau, Lucie held various executive positions with decision-making and strategic responsibilities at Library and Archives Canada and Natural Resources Canada.

Lucie has 2 children. She holds a bachelor's degree in education, a master's degree in public administration and a Chartered Professional Accountants Canada certification.
