Apolitical Digital Bootcamp (Next offering coming in February)

A 6-week journey on how-to be "digital" in the public service

Let's face it: every worker is now a digital worker, every public servant is a digital public servant.

Built in partnership with a pan-Canadian team, the Digital Academy is leading the next iteration of the "How-to be digital in the Canadian public service" bootcamp, an introduction to digital open to all levels of Canada's public service, academia, and civil society.

This course is about applying the culture, practices and technologies of digital in your day-to-day work in the public sector, covering topics like:
- ✓ What digital is - and isn't - and how it applies to government
- ✓ Best practices for working digitally
- ✓ The top trends driving digital transformation worldwide
