BEST PRACTICES FORUM ON OFFICIAL LANGUAGES

THE FORUM

This year, the Best Practices Forum on Official Languages will be held virtually and is open to all public servants!

You are invited to attend this annual event that brings together official languages champions, persons responsible for official languages, as well as coordinators responsible for implementing measures aimed at enhancing the vitality of English and French linguistic minority communities, supporting their development and promoting the full recognition and use of English and French in Canada.

The topic of the Forum will be diversity and inclusion. Find out more about all of the activities organized between March 1 and 5, 2021, on GCwiki.

ARMCHAIR DISCUSSION

Thanks to a partnership with the Canada School of Public Service, all public servants are invited to two talks.

FROM LINGUISTIC INSECURITY TO LINGUISTIC SECURITY: COACHING, RESILIENCE AND RISK TAKING

Imagine using coaching to implement language security. Are you familiar with the concept of language resilience? Do you recognize the impact of leaders who make incredible efforts to speak in their second language? Do you want to learn more about a risk-taking application that helps federal public servants reduce their language insecurity?

To answer these questions, the Treasury Board of Canada Secretariat has brought together experts who will share their experiences with regard to certain skills related to building language security on an individual and organizational basis.

MAURIL

MAURIL APPLICATION FROM CBC/RADIO-CANADA: CULTURE AND ENTERTAINMENT AT THE HEART OF OFFICIAL LANGUAGES LEARNING

CBC/Radio-Canada invites you to discover their new platform, Mauril, to learn English and French as a second language.

Mauril is a new, free and ad-free digital platform using a wide range of stimulating and entertaining content from CBC/Radio-Canada to help users learn English and French.

Funded and endorsed by the Government of Canada, this new tool is designed and deployed by CBC/Radio-Canada, in collaboration with a committee of pedagogical experts. It's meant to help improve oral comprehension and integrate language knowledge in everyday life.

SPEAKERS

- Renée-Claude Ménard, Chief of Staff, Radio-Canada
- Anne Hébert, Manager, Strategic and Digital Market Development, CBC/Radio-Canada
- Thierry Karsenti, PhD, Canada Research Chair on Information and Communication Technologies in Education, professor at the Université de Montréal

PROGRAM

Introduction by Julie Boyer, Assistant Deputy Minister, Official Languages, Heritage and Regions and Sarah Boily, Executive Director, Policy and Research, Canadian Heritage

- Why did CBC/Radio-Canada create an application for language learning?
- How to design a language learning application adapted to the Canadian context?
- The keys to language learning

The presentation will be followed by a Q&A period.

Date: March 4, 2021, 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. (ET)

No registration required: Participation via Zoom
