

Carsten Quell, Executive Director, Official Languages Centre of Excellence, Office of the Chief Human Resources Officer, Treasury Board of Canada Secretariat

Carsten Quell has a background in linguistics and has worked in both the public and private sectors. In government, he has occupied program and corporate policy functions at the Department of Canadian Heritage, before joining the Office of the Commissioner of Official Languages. At the Office of the Commissioner of Official Languages, he spent seven years, working for Commissioner Graham Fraser as Director for Policy and Research. In 2015, he became Director for Policy and Legislation in the Official Languages Centre of Excellence at Treasury Board Secretariat. In 2018, he was appointed Executive Director of the Official Languages Centre of Excellence.

Earlier in his career, he taught at the Lycée Français de Toronto and later managed translation and international communications for the e-commerce company Tucows Inc. in Toronto.

Carsten holds a Ph.D. from the University of Toronto and an M.A. from the Free University of Berlin.